Our Mission

Parents and staff at Breakspeare School believe

- that regular and relevant communication between them will assist the children's learning
- that it is important for the children's education that pupils attend regularly, are on time and fully prepared for their school days
- that they share the responsibility to promote appropriate communication and behaviour
- that through working together and addressing the same issues at home and at school they are able to maximise the children's learning and development

Introduction

For students to achieve success at Breakspeare School, it is essential that parents, students and the school work together. Each partner has an equally important role to play in this partnership for learning.

The school will;

- Provide a safe, well ordered and caring environment
- Demonstrate that each student is valued as an individual
- Develop the qualities of self-worth and self-esteem
- Imbue students with moral principles along with empathy, understanding and tolerance of others of all faiths, needs and backgrounds
- Provide a rich and stimulating curriculum for all students irrespective of special educational need, which will utilize a range of resources and facilities along with access to host of professional support
- Ensure that assessments indicate targets and strategies for improvement
- Inform you at an early stage so that if there are concerns about your son/daughter you can discuss them with us
- Help your son/daughter to realize his/her potential
- Report regularly through the annual report to you on your son/daughter's attainment, effort and progress
- Provide regular newsletters informing you of events, activities and experiences in the life of the school
- Be open and welcoming at all times and offer opportunities for parents to come to school during the year for them to see what their child has been learning in school
- Provide information on how parents can support their child's learning at home, along with homework as and when that is requested/required.

Parents/guardians will;

- Support the school in the standards it seeks to achieve
- Take an interest in my/our child's work and play an active role in his/her progress
- Monitor my/our child's progress and behaviour through the home school book
- Attend parents events including educational reviews and plans, assemblies, and medical appointments
- Keep the school informed of matters which may be affecting my/our child's performance, attitude or well-being
- Ensure regular attendance and inform the school if children are absent
- Provide my/our child with appropriate PE clothing and swimwear.

Pupils/students will;

- Work to the best of their ability
- Show a polite and caring attitude to others within the school community
- Attend regularly and be punctual to lessons
- Take pride in their appearance
- Obey school rules
- Take responsibility for achieving their targets for improvement

Together we will;

- Support the child to help them achieve their best.
- Treat each other with dignity and respect.
- Share difficulties and work to reduce and solve them.
- Celebrate the students' success.
