BREAKSPEARE NEWS

---

Issue 1 Volume 2

11 September 2015

NEWS FROM OUR CLASSROOMS

Class 1 have been settling into their new class and have been exploring new sensory textures.

Class 2 have been learning about their bodies and the children enjoyed the 'Shake your body song'. This week

Class 3 started a skeleton dance in preparation for their story 'Funny bones'.

All pupils in Class 4 settled in really well and enjoyed their sensory story 'The magic train ride'.

Class 5 have been enjoying their wake up and shake up club in the morning, moving and grooving to lots of different music.

Class 6 have had a settled and lovely start to the new school year. They are learning topics range from Aladdin, The Rainforest and The Vikings.

Class 7 are enjoying welcoming their new students and introducing them to all the new activities in the Upper school. Next week they will start going to West Herts College in preparation for their weekly lesson which will start later in the term.

In P.E. the lessons have started well this term with several classes enjoying a movement session and being pirates. They have been going through the tunnels, up mountains, across swamps and rowing across the sea to find the treasure.

DADS CURRY NIGHT

Darren (our P.E. teacher) would like to invite all Breakspeare Dads and Granddads for a social in the form of a Curry Night at a local tandoori on Friday 2nd October at 7.30pm.

It would be good to get together and then discuss further projects going forward once we can establish a core group and those who are committed to meeting more regularly for different events. Please let Darren know if you are able to make it asap or at least by Friday 18th September by responding to his email address:
