Dear Parents and Carers,
I'm extremely pleased to share with you our latest Ofsted report.

Breakspeare School continues to be outstanding.

Breakspeare School is amongst a few special needs schools in the UK that have been graded outstanding for four consecutive Ofsted inspections. As standards are already high we are very proud to be able to continuously strive for improvement.

As you read the attached document you will notice that Ofsted is very impressed with the quality of work at all levels of our organisation. They recognised the high quality work in teaching and learning, administrative and premises practice, leadership and management and governance.

I am very proud of my staff.

'You and your staff have built a wonderful culture in the school that celebrates pupils' success. Staff know their pupils incredibly well and make the most of every opportunity to help pupils to learn. You have created vibrant, welcoming, caring school which is evident the moment you step through the door.' Ofsted 2017

Thank you for your continuous support.

Best wishes,
Merja
