

SONNET ABOUT MY BIG BROTHER

Joshua

My brother is a kind and happy boy,
Whose smile will light a dark and gloomy day,
Trains, planes and marbles bring him cheer and joy,
Love his iPad, swimming and water play.

My brother is muscular and tall.
Can sometimes get a bit nervous
Because changes make him anxious in all,
I want to help, course I like him joyous.

My big brother is different from rest
He learns from me because of his special needs,
Now and then I wish he was at his best,
But I know God has his reason, He leads.

But in any case, I love my brother,
And he loves me too, just like no other.
